A SPIDER WAY OF THINKING

i've got a spider way of thinking i live in light switches broken fixtures dusty crystal chandeliers that sparkle on me and my tiny shadow please let me make you something intricate the world i love is on the ceiling in the tiny crack of window pane moonlight where i am making you a new home see my arms are my legs are my arms silk ink lines calligraphy
i have a spider way of dreaming i drop so much thread and fly
